2.4.8 Academic Status Workflow

OnTrack Student referred to OnTrack as an early alert process that is available for instructors to request student support. It is available during the term and to the end of the student's program of study. Student does not achieve minimum Student achieves minimum Student in good academic standard at the end of the academic standard. academic standing term and program of study. Academic Alert Student assigned and notified of Student achieves minimum Student in good Academic Alert to access support academic standard. academic standing services. Student does not achieve minimum academic standard at the end of OnTrack the term and program of study. Academic Risk Student assigned and notified of Academic Risk to access support services and notified of Academic Performance Required to Withdraw after another term of study with minimum academic standard is not achieved. Student does not achieve minimum Student achieves minimum Student in good academic standard at the end of academic standard. academic standing the term and program of study. Student does not achieve Required to Withdraw minimum academic standard Student assigned and notified of Required to Withdraw. at the end of the term and program of study. Student restricted from course Student completes and submits an registration for a period of 8 months or Academic Success Plan to an Dean Approval for Early Early Return to Studies approved. Return to Studies Education Advisor. Student in good Student achieves minimum academic standing and restrictions removed.

academic standard.