

Education Assistant Program (EAP)

Program Outline

PROGRAM IMPLEMENTATION DATE:	September 2010
OUTLINE EFFECTIVE DATE:	September 2020
PROGRAM OUTLINE REVIEW DATE:	March 2025

GENERAL PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:

The Education Assistant Program is designed for students who intend to pursue employment in more highly specialized areas of the Education Assistant field providing direct educational services and supports to school children who need them.

General skills developed: Specific skills for working with populations in the K-12 school system; for example, children and youth with learning disabilities, Autism, Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder, behaviour disorders, communication disorders, health issues, and physical disabilities.

Program Information:

Certificate: Upon completion of the EAP certificate students find employment in K-12 schools. Education Assistants are hired to work under the direction of a teacher and/or administrator as they assist teachers in designing, implementing, supervising and assessing educational programs; providing instruction to individual students and groups of students; providing behavioural management, personal care, and supervision support in the classroom, school, playgrounds and field trips.

Specific responsibilities and duties are outlined in the School Act (Section 17) and regulations (Section 4) as well as in the BCTF document "Roles and Responsibilities of Teachers and Teacher Assistants".

The EA Certificate program enrolls students from all across British Columbia. This certificate program is well subscribed because of its accessibility (available completely or partially online), flexibility (available for part time and full time study) and reputation.

Delivery: All online or part face-to-face and online.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS:

CYFS 101 Inclusive Interpersonal Communications

Inclusive Interpersonal Communications enables the student to develop interpersonal communication skills to enhance their professional and personal relationships. We also expect students to clearly evaluate their own values, beliefs, and attitudes that influence their interpersonal communication.

CYFS 102 Observing and Recording

This course is designed to help students become human service workers, education assistants, early childhood educators, and aboriginal education support workers enhance their skills in observing and recording human development and behaviour from birth through adulthood. A variety of observing and recording techniques will be explored in the course.

CYFS 103 Guiding Across the Lifespan

This course focuses on effective ways to guide and understand the needs and behaviours of children, youth and adults. Learners will also explore the influences that inform their own behavior and reflect on how these influences impact their understanding of themselves. A variety of theoretical, developmental and experiential perspectives will be explored.

CYFS 116 Lifespan Development

This course explores the development of humans from conception to death. It includes physical, cognitive and psychosocial developmental domains. Students preparing to work in careers that involve other people need to clearly understand the complex, dynamic process of development throughout a person's lifespan. This knowledge can provide students with insight into their own development and the development of those they will encounter in their personal and professional lives.

EAP 102 Technology and Augmentative Communication

This course provides students with an introduction to augmentative and alternative communication. Characteristics of various strategies related to the needs of the users are explored. Students also look at a variety of ethical and technological issues that emerge when supporting children who use alternative and augmentative forms of communication in K-12 classrooms.

EAP 104 EAP Practicum 1

The content of this course is specific to developing the skills, knowledge, and values of an Education Assistant in a school setting. Students have the opportunity to begin integrating theory and skills learned in the classroom within the school setting.

EAP 105 Special Education

This course provides learners with in-depth information on common special needs in the K-12 classroom, including an overview of inclusion and the BC Ministry of Education funding categories. It provides learners with a variety of strategies used to support K-12 students with special needs. The content of this course is specific to developing the core competencies required of education assistants in the K-12 school setting.

EAP 107 Education Assistant Practicum 2

In this ten-week course, students integrate theory and practice skills that have been learned in the Education Assistant program and apply them in a school setting. Students complete a seven week full-time practicum in a classroom setting with concurrent classwork, as well as three weeks of focused online guided reflection.

EAP 108 Autism

This course is designed to provide students with an in depth understanding of Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) and how to successfully support children and youth with ASD in the K-12 school system. This includes academic, behavioural, and environmental challenges which are specific to ASD. Students learn various skills and strategies to address sensory stimulation, communication, anxiety, and language challenges.

EAP 110 Healthcare in the School System

In this course, learners will develop a global understanding of healthcare in the K-12 school system, and the roles and responsibilities of an Education Assistant within it. The course looks at current healthy schools initiatives in the province of British Columbia, how to support the healthcare of students with diverse needs, and strategies for managing personal health and wellness as Education Assistants.

EAP 111 Understanding the K-12 Curriculum

This course provides the students with the opportunity to explore ways to support students and facilitate learning in the K-12 classroom. Strategies for supporting literacy and numeracy are discussed in detail. This course uses the BC Ministry of Education curriculum and core competencies as the foundation for directing support. The content of this course is specific to developing the skills, knowledge, and values in an Education Assistant setting.

EAP 112 Introduction to Systems, Structures, and Roles in Education

This course focuses on the systems, structures and roles within the K-12 education system. Students explore the evolution of the education system in British Columbia, levels within that system, alternate forms of education, and the roles and resources related to learners with special needs.
