

Incident Command Systems 200 – FIRE 114

Fire Training Certification

Course Outline

COURSE IMPLEMENTATION DATE: September 2015
OUTLINE EFFECTIVE DATE: January 2024
COURSE OUTLINE REVIEW DATE: September 2029

GENERAL COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Incident Command Systems (ICS) 200 builds on the knowledge acquired in ICS 100 (COTR FIRE 113), and defines the unique qualities of ICS as an event or incident management system. This course provides an introduction to leadership and management, delegation of authority and management by objectives, functional areas and positions, briefings, organizational flexibility, and transfer of command within an ICS. The focus is on the management of single resources, and the training needs of personnel who are likely to assume a supervisory position within the ICS.

Program Information: This course is a required course for the Fire Training Certification program. It may also be delivered as a standalone course or as a part of a specialized contract training program.

Delivery: This course may be delivered either face-to-face, or in a hybrid delivery model (i.e. course theory delivered online; practical skills developed in a face-to-face setting).

EVALUATION AND ASSESSMENT:

Assessment of learning follows standard approved by Emergency Management British Columbia.

Assessment
This course is assessed with a final exam. Students must achieve a minimum mark of 70%.

Please see the instructor syllabus for specific classroom policies related to this course, such as details of evaluation, penalties for late assignments and use of electronic aids.

EXAM POLICY:

Students must attend all required scheduled exams that make up a final grade at the appointed time and place.

Individual instructors may accommodate for illness or personal crisis. Additional accommodation will not be made unless a written request is sent to and approved by the appropriate Department Head prior to the scheduled exam.

Any student who misses a scheduled exam without approval will be given a grade of "0" for the exam.

COURSE GRADE:

Course grades are assigned as follows:

COM	Completed to defined standard
NCG	No Credit Granted

A grade of COM is awarded for: A minimum of 70% on total course assessment.

Completion (COM) is assessed in some courses by a minimum mark on a written test alone or by a combination of written and practical test scores. In other courses, completion is assessed by a holistic estimate by the instructor of the student's mastery of learning outcomes.

All courses (whether credit-bearing or continuing education courses) must be passed or marked "complete" according to the criteria listed before the student can be awarded the COTR Fire Services Training Certificate.

ACADEMIC POLICIES:

See www.cotr.bc.ca/policies for general college policies related to course activities, including grade appeals, cheating and plagiarism.
